Pull into the double wide paver driveway and become immediately enveloped in greenery, from the perennial garden in front to the woods bordering the elevated mahogany deck that wraps around the home. As you enter the vast double doors, you are greeted with soaring, sky-high vaulted ceilings in the Foyer that continues throughout and introduces the open layout of this home. The outside is brought into the Great Room through the large windows framing the gas fireplace and ascending to the ceiling, displaying the trees outside. A wide granite countertop pass-through lines the wall from the Great Room to the Kitchen.

The Chef's Kitchen includes white custom cabinetry with roll-out drawers, a tumbled marble backsplash, under-counter lighting, and granite countertops. You will revel cooking in this light and bright space, featuring a six-burner
